City of Edmonton

Have your art play a part

The City of Edmonton is looking for local artists who want to see their work appear in a calendar being developed as a companion to the 2016 Report on the Environment. A piece of original artwork which best depicts each month's theme will be chosen for the calendar.

The calendar will showcase one topic area from the report each month, with art depicting each area. The 12 topic areas are:

- water
- nature and biodiversity
- air quality
- energy
- climate change
- sustainable urban form
- sustainable transportation
- waste
- sustainable living
- local food
- green building
- greenhouse gas emissions

Edmonton's Report on the Environment provides information on the condition of Edmonton's environment and reports on general trends. The 2016 report will be released this fall.

For more details on how to enter the contest, visit edmonton.ca/greenannualreport. The contest runs until October 16, 2015.
