City of Edmonton

City launches survey on affordable housing strategy

The City of Edmonton wants your input on its proposed Affordable Housing Strategy.

Safe and affordable housing is a key ingredient for healthy communities. The availability of affordable housing to rent or own directly impacts well-being, quality of life and economic prosperity. The Affordable Housing Strategy is intended to guide City of Edmonton involvement in affordable housing for the next ten years.

Approximately 300 Edmontonians have provided input on the draft strategy. Now you can share your views by completing the online survey.

Deadline for responses is September 4, 2015. After feedback is compiled and reviewed, the draft strategy will be presented to Council in Fall 2015.
