Meaning "the sound of chit chat" in Japanese, Pecha Kucha Nights are an international phenomenon where the region's most engaged residents present their thoughts with the help of 20 images for 20 seconds each. This distinctive format keeps the evening fast-paced, concise and entertaining. Teaming up with the Alberta Professional Planners Institute (APPI), PKN 23 will be built on an urban planning theme, with half of the presentations focusing on the engaging topic.

Pecha Kucha Nights are presented by Edmonton's NextGen, a group of young, passionate, civic and community-minded individuals who provide a platform for the sharing and advancement of new and emerging ideas. The group gratefully acknowledges Stantec for its generous support as sole presenting sponsor of Pecha Kucha Nights.
