

Grand Opening: Mill Woods Seniors & Multicultural Centre

Edmontonians are invited to join Mayor Don Iveson, MLA Christina Gray and Councillor Mike Nickel for the Mill Woods Seniors & Multicultural Centre grand opening celebration. The centre is located in the heart of Mill Woods, above the new Mill Woods Public Library, and is a vibrant addition to the community with programming and meeting spaces for a variety of organizations.

Date: Friday, September 11, 2015
Time: noon – 1 p.m. Formal grand opening celebration and ribbon cutting
10 a.m. – 2 p.m. Demonstration of programs and activities
(presented by the Mill Woods Seniors Activity Centre)
Location: 2nd Floor – 2610 Hewes Way

With over 23,500 square feet, the centre includes a large multi-purpose program space, three program rooms, a games room and a full kitchen and dining area.

The Mill Woods Seniors Activity Centre will provide programs such as:

- Music sessions
- Pickle ball
- Floor curling
- Exercise programs
- Arts and crafts
- Quilting and sewing
- Knitting and crocheting

Multicultural organizations, community groups and non-profit organizations also have the opportunity to rent space at the facility.
