

City cracks down on traffic safety around school zones

The City of Edmonton is launching a new parking enforcement campaign to address traffic safety concerns around school zones. Councillor Dave Loken, Councillor Ed Gibbons and representatives from Dr. Donald Massey School and the City of Edmonton's Office of Traffic Safety and Community Standards will speak about the campaign and results of a recently completed traffic study.

Date: Tuesday, September 15, 2015

Program begins: 8:10 a.m.

Photo opportunities: 8:30 a.m.

Location: Dr. Donald Massey School, 5435 162 Ave NW

Photo opportunities: parents dropping children off at school, parking officers ticketing, safety improvements in the school zones. Video of the school zone study will also be made available.

The enforcement campaign began September 8, 2015 and will run until ticket numbers begin to decline.
