

EndPovertyEdmonton to release recommendations to eliminate poverty

The EndPovertyEdmonton task force will publicly release its strategy, complete with 28 priority recommendations, aimed at eliminating poverty in Edmonton within a generation.

City Council created the EndPovertyEdmonton task force in 2014 with the goal to develop a concrete and comprehensive community strategy to end poverty in Edmonton in a generation, and present their strategy to Council in 2015. The task force consists of 22 community leaders who are committed to ensuring that all Edmontonians can reach their full potential.

Media are invited to join Mayor Don Iveson, Bishop Jane Alexander and members of the EndPovertyEdmonton task force as they release the 28 recommendations.

Date: Friday, September 18, 2015

Time: 10:30 a.m.

Location: Intercultural Centre at McCauley School, 9538 107 Ave NW (in the gymnasium)

Mayor Don Iveson and Bishop Jane Alexander will be available for interviews following the formal event.
