

Family fun for everyone

Nature, swimming, red pandas and skating can all be part of your free family fun this Sunday! The City of Edmonton is proud to host Free Admission Day to thank Edmontonians for their ongoing support of attractions and recreation facilities.

Your Free Admission Day could include a Zumba class or a dip in the pool at a recreation centre, a visit to the otters at the Edmonton Valley Zoo, a tropical adventure at the Muttart Conservatory, a trip back in time at the Prince of Wales Armouries Heritage Centre, a family skate at one of the City's arenas, and much, much more.

The YMCA has partnered with the City to offer free admission at four of its facilities again this year.

The City of Edmonton proudly supports Edmonton's Food Bank. On Free Admission Day, donations of non-perishable food items will be gratefully accepted at all participating facilities.

Due to high traffic, parking will be limited at all facilities. In addition, Buena Vista Road NW is under construction and will cause delays for those travelling to the Valley Zoo. The City encourages Edmontonians to make use of Edmonton Transit to get to their destination. ETS will be operating the Route 596 shuttle service from South Campus to Fort Edmonton Park and the Valley Zoo on approximately 15 minute frequency between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Sunday, September 27. Regular fares apply for all ETS service. For fare, route and schedule information, or to plan your trip, visit takeETS.com.

Capacities vary at each facility and admission may be controlled for safety and security purposes.

Please note that Free Admission Day is only for the facilities listed. It does not apply to other City of Edmonton services.
