

So you want to be a firefighter

Ever consider a career as a firefighter? Edmonton Fire Rescue Services is inviting interested Edmontonians to their annual Recruitment Open House. Participants will gain valuable information about training and recruitment processes for City firefighters as well have the opportunity to hear directly from firefighters about their careers. Crews will demonstrate technical rescue exercises by lowering a "patient" from the roof of the training school as well as removing parts of a car to show a mock rescue of a trapped passenger.

This event has a limited capacity, and registration is required. Please visit edmonton.ca/firefighter-recruitment to enroll and secure your spot.
