

November is Family Violence Prevention Month

Media are invited to join Mayor Don Iveson and community partners as they proclaim November as Family Violence Prevention Month in Edmonton. This year's theme is "Supporting the Supporters: How Friends and Family Can Help Prevent Family Violence." While formal services and supports are critical, informal networks, including friends and family, can play an important role in preventing family violence.

Date: Monday, November 2

Time: Noon – 1 p.m.

Location: City Room, City Hall, 1 Sir Winston Churchill Square

Edmonton's Stacey Brozel will host the proclamation event and welcome guest speaker, Lana Wells, Brenda Strafford Chair for the Prevention of Domestic Violence, Faculty of Social Work, University of Calgary. Honourable Irfan Sabir, Minister of Human Services and Edmonton Police Service Acting Chief Tony Harder will also attend.
