

Sunday LRT service affected during maintenance

On Sunday, November 8, LRT service on the Capital Line between Clareview and Churchill Stations will be suspended from the start of service until 6 p.m. to allow for scheduled track maintenance in preparation for winter.

LRT replacement service buses will run every seven to eight minutes between Clareview and Churchill LRT stations.

Metro Line trains will run between NAIT and Churchill stations only. Transfers between the two lines will only be possible at Churchill station.

LRT service adjustments are required to complete work in a safe and timely manner. Regular LRT service will be restored at 6 p.m. on Sunday, November 8.
