

Edmonton's DONATE-A-RIDE gears up for 20th year

Mayor Don Iveson and Councillors Dave Loken and Bryan Anderson, as well as representatives from Donate-A-Ride's corporate donors and the program's social agency partners, are officially kicking off the 20th year of Edmonton's DONATE-A-RIDE program.

Edmontonians and local businesses are encouraged to change a life this holiday season through DONATE-A-RIDE, which provides Edmonton Transit tickets to Edmonton adults and youth who cannot afford public transportation. DONATE-A-RIDE gives people access to essential trips like school, medical appointments and employment opportunities.

Date: Monday, December 14, 2015

Time: 10 a.m.

Location: City Room, Main Floor, City Hall

Photo Opportunity: Mayor Don Iveson will board an ETS bus and make a cash donation by placing a DONATE-A-RIDE envelope in the fare box.
