

A flurry of activity at the Muttart Conservatory

Snowflakes and song will fill the air during the holiday season at the Muttart Conservatory. Thursday, December 17, live musicians will perform in the Holiday Traditions concert, combining their performance with a rollicking singalong. Culina Muttart invites guests to make it a date night by booking a festive dinner before the show.

Music at the Muttart: Holiday Traditions

Date: Thursday, December 17
Time: 6 p.m. - 8 p.m.
Location: Muttart Conservatory, 9629 96A Street NW
Admission: Included with regular admission

Families with small children and people who love to ring in the new year will have a ball at Countdown at the Conservatory. This unique New Year's Eve event happens during the day, with countdowns every hour. Face painting and seasonal fun will keep the kids busy between Happy New Years.

Countdown at the Conservatory

Date: Thursday, December 31
Time: 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.
Location: Muttart Conservatory, 9629 96A Street NW
Admission: Included with regular admission

The holiday feature pyramid display, Snowflakes Are Falling, runs until January 3.

The Muttart Conservatory is open every day except Christmas, including New Year's Eve until 9pm and regular hours on New Year's Day. On December 24, the Conservatory will close at 5pm.

For more information:

Visit: edmonton.ca/muttart_conservatory

Media contact:

Gayleen Froese
Communications Advisor
780-423-3986

Share:

3rd Floor, City Hall
1 Sir Winston Churchill Square NW
Edmonton, AB
T5J 2R7
www.edmonton.ca

Subscribe | Unsubscribe | Printer Friendly Version

This email was created and delivered through Mailout