

Taking care of your trash this holiday season

The City of Edmonton collects more than twice the amount of waste and recycling in the two weeks after December 25 than the typical amount in January and February combined. Disposing of waste correctly is critical for the smooth operation of Edmonton's waste management system.

Media are invited to join Erika Droessler, Education Programs Coordinator for Waste Management Services and Dave Claus, the Spirit of Holiday Waste, as they explain how to take care of holiday waste.

Date: Thursday, December 17, 2015
Time: 10 a.m.
Location: MEC Recycling Depot (124 Street and 102 Avenue)

Photo Opportunity: Dave Claus, the Spirit of Holiday Waste, will demonstrate how easy it is to dispose of recyclable material at recycling depots, which are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
