

Join City for climate change discussion

Media are invited to a lunchtime session with nait advocate and Nobel Peace Prize nominee, Sheila Watt-Cloutier, for her presentation, The Right To Be Cold: Human Rights And Our Changing Climate.

Date: Wednesday, January 27, 2016
Time: Noon
Location: Art Gallery of Alberta, 2 Sir Winston Churchill Square
Interview Opportunity: Interviews with Sheila Watt-Cloutier are available before and after the noon event, if arranged in advance.

Media are invited to observe the feature keynote presentation this evening from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. at 1-430 Centennial Centre for Interdisciplinary Science, University of Alberta.

This event is part of the University of Alberta's International Week and Sustainability Speaker Series and The City of Edmonton's The Way We Green Speakers Series. This event is sponsored in part by the City of Edmonton, University of Alberta's Office of Sustainability and University of Alberta's Global Education Program.

The Right To Be Cold is the latest installment in the City's The Way We Green Speaker Series, dedicated to inspiring dialogue to successfully build a greener and more resilient city.

For more information:

Visit: edmonton.ca/GreenSpeakersSeries

Media contact:

Ramya Velmurugiah
Communications Advisor
780-496-8196

Share:

3rd Floor, City Hall
1 Sir Winston Churchill Square NW
Edmonton, AB
T5J 2R7
www.edmonton.ca

Subscribe | Unsubscribe | Printer Friendly Version

This email was created and delivered through Mailout