

City asks for feedback on traffic shortcutting pilot

The City of Edmonton is hosting a series of drop-in public meetings in the four neighbourhoods chosen to take part in the Traffic Shortcutting Pilot Project. The City is now assessing the traffic management measures and would like to hear from residents about their experiences.

Newton

Date: Wednesday, January 27, 2016

Time: 5 - 8 p.m.

Location: Newton Community League Hall, 5520 - 121 Avenue

Ottewell

Date: Tuesday, February 2, 2016

Time: 5 - 8 p.m.

Location: Ottewell Community League Hall, 5920 - 93A Avenue

Crestwood

Date: Wednesday, February 3, 2016

Time: 5 - 8 p.m.

Location: Crestwood Community League Hall, 14325 - 96 Avenue

Ormsby Place

Date: Monday, February 8, 2016

Time: 5 - 8 p.m.

Location: Ormsby School, 6323 - 184 Street

Residents will be able to view display material, speak with project team members and provide their feedback. Public input will also be collected through an online survey that will be available for two weeks after each meeting.

The City of Edmonton installed a variety of traffic calming measures in the communities in fall of 2015 to reduce speeding or shortcutting through the neighbourhoods.

The results of the pilot project will be reported back to City Council on March 23, 2016.
