

Join the Sidewalk Clearing Party!

Join Councillor Bev Esslinger, the Edmonton Oil Kings, Boston Pizza, Brookfield Residential and representatives and students from Gameau School as they encourage Edmontonians to clear their sidewalks of ice and snow from their property and for neighbours in need.

Date: Thursday, January 28, 2016
Time: 12:30 p.m.
Location: Gameau School, 10925 87 Ave. NW (meet at front doors of Gameau school.
Visitor parking available in the East parking lot.

Kevin Radomski, director, Edmonton Oil Kings, Delia Colquhoun, marketing manager, Boston Pizza and Ann Parker, principal, Gameau School will be available to discuss the partnership with the City of Edmonton on the Snow Angel's program and the importance of removing sidewalk ice and snow. Katie Hayes, project manager with the City of Edmonton, will also talk about the importance of keeping sidewalks clear of ice during freeze-thaw cycles in light of this week's warmer temperatures.

Snow Angels is an awareness and recognition program encouraging Edmontonians to voluntarily clear sidewalk snow and ice for a person in need within the community. The program also asks those who receive help to acknowledge their volunteer as a City of Edmonton Snow Angel.
