

Planning for Edmonton's Future - Let's Talk Growth

Edmonton is growing at a fast pace, transforming into a large, urban centre that is also one of the youngest cities in Canada.

How do we manage this growth? How do we strike a balance between preserving, revitalizing and densifying existing areas while accommodating new opportunities?

Media are invited to a presentation with keynote speaker, Brent Toderian, former Chief Planner for the City of Vancouver, as he shares his perspectives on managing the opportunities and challenges of an ever-changing city.

Date: Thursday, February 25, 2016

Time: Doors open at 6 p.m., talk at 6:30 p.m. followed by Q & A session

Location: Art Gallery of Alberta - Ledcor Theatre
2 Sir Winston Churchill Square

Date: Friday, February 26, 2016

Time: Noon. Opening remarks from Mayor Don Iveson

Location: Art Gallery of Alberta - Ledcor Theatre
2 Sir Winston Churchill Square

Let's Talk Growth is the third presentation in the City's Great Ideas Great City speaker series which invites Edmontonians to explore inspiring ideas that help shape a great city.
