

Join us for River Valley Spring Clean Up

April 20, 2016

Join Capital City Clean on Sunday, May 1 for the River Valley Clean Up kickoff event. See how many bags of litter can be picked up around Victoria Park.

Since 1987, thousands of city residents have scoured Edmonton's parks system to pick up litter. It's all part of River Valley Clean Up, a volunteer program encouraging citizens and groups to help keep these natural areas litter-free and beautiful throughout the spring and summer.

Registration will take place at Victoria Park starting at 9:30 a.m.. Clean-up supplies will be provided. Please bring gloves, wear sturdy shoes and dress for the weather. This volunteer activity is best suited for individuals 15 years or older. Parental consent required for youth.

Date: Sunday, May 1, 2016

Time: 10 a.m. – noon

Location: Victoria Park, 12130 River Valley Rd NW

More than 3,730 volunteers picked up 2,066 bags of litter during the 2015 River Valley Clean Up program.

Have a group of friends, coworkers or associates who want to help clean parks throughout the spring/summer? A group can sign up to do their own River Valley or park clean up this summer. Register at edmonton.ca/hvcleanup.
