

Artists express thoughts on mental health

April 29, 2016

Join Councillor Scott McKeen and local artists to hear stories, poems and music with the goal of inspiring Edmontonians to become involved with mental health initiatives in the community.

Date: Tuesday, May 3, 2016

Time: 7 - 9 p.m.

Location: City Hall

Cost: Free

The event will feature a series of speakers, storytellers, and local musicians who will share their knowledge and perspective on mental health and social isolation. The public will have the opportunity to interact with the presenters after the program.

Mental Health Awareness week runs from May 2 - May 8, 2016.
