

City seeks feedback on Edmonton's mature neighbourhood development regulations

May 11, 2016

The City is hosting two public engagement events to gather feedback from residents on what defines neighbourhood character, and how to improve Edmonton's mature neighbourhood development regulations.

Date: Saturday, May 28, 2016
Time: 9 a.m. - Noon
Location: University of Alberta Lister Centre - Maple Leaf Room, 11613 87 Avenue NW
Registration: Advance registration required
Residents are encouraged to register early, as space is limited.*

The events are part of the City's review of the Mature Neighbourhood Overlay (MNO) - a set of 24 development regulations that help ensure new housing in mature neighbourhoods remains sensitive to the surrounding community. The goal of the review is to make it easier for builders and landowners to build housing in the mature areas of our city, while ensuring new development integrates in a way that supports the unique features of these communities.

The MNO review is action 17 on Edmonton's Infill Roadmap, the City's two-year work plan for advancing infill in Edmonton.
