

Help shape the future of our schools and communities

May 12, 2016

Edmontonians are invited to share their opinions at public consultations in Britannia, Westlawn or Rosslyn areas on options to create modern, updated schools and other community projects. Hosted by, the City of Edmonton and Edmonton Public Schools, the public meetings will:

- Identify priorities, neighbourhood and community needs
- Develop a plan to create modern, updated schools in mature communities
- Identify what would make the community more vibrant and sustainable

Each session takes place 6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Date: Monday, May 16, 2016

Location: Britannia School, 16018-104 Avenue NW
(Britannia area includes Britannia, Brightview, Mayfield and Youngstown schools)

Date: Tuesday, May 24, 2016

Location: Rosslyn School, 13215 113A Street NW
(Rosslyn area includes Rosslyn, Athlone, Calder, Kensington, Lauderdale, McArthur and Scott Robertson schools)

Date: Tuesday, May 31, 2016

Location: Westlawn School, 9520 165 Street NW
(Westlawn area includes Westlawn, Afton, Glendale and Sherwood schools)

Edmonton Public Schools will live stream each meeting on spaceforstudents.epsb.ca.

These consultations build on the first round held in March 2016, titled 'Space for Students in Mature Neighbourhoods', which covered types of school spaces that work best for students, what education programs the community would like to see and the unique needs of each community.

If Edmontonians are unable to attend in person, they are encouraged to fill out an online survey at spaceforstudents.epsb.ca which will be made available on the evening of the public meeting.
