

Change to new location for all donation drop-offs

May 13, 2016

Media are invited to view and learn about a new warehouse that will become the single location for Edmontonians to drop off all material donations:

Date: Friday, May 13, 2016

Time: 3:30 p.m.

Location: 3870-98 Street NW

The Edmonton Emergency Relief Services Society (EERSS) is opening a new warehouse on Saturday. Nicole Geoffroy, spokesperson for EERSS, and a spokesperson from the City of Edmonton will tour the warehouse with media and provide information about the donation location.

This warehouse will become operational on Saturday, when it will become the only donation drop-off location. It will not be for evacuees to access supplies.
