

More neon lights in Edmonton's future

May 17, 2016

Media are invited to join the City of Edmonton and our partners as we celebrate the addition of ten new signs to the Neon Sign Museum. One of the new signs will be installed as part of the program, while the other new signs were recently added.

Date: Tuesday, May 17, 2016

Time: 7 p.m.

Location: 104 Street and 104 Avenue (Outside of Mercer Tavern)

Launched in 2014, the Neon Sign Museum showcases the commercial signage that was prevalent in Edmonton's past. The City of Edmonton has continued to work with our partners the Alberta Sign Association, Telus, the Downtown Business Association, The Places and now the owners of the Mercer Building to ensure more signs are added to the museum.
