

You're a poet and you don't even know it!

City of Edmonton Youth Council searches for a Youth Poet Laureate

May 19, 2016

Roses are red,
violets are blue,
the City needs a new Youth Poet Laureate,
And it could be YOU!

The City of Edmonton's Youth Council is accepting applications for the City's second Youth Poet Laureate! The selected Youth Poet Laureate will bring a unique voice to Edmonton for a one-year term. This opportunity will include performances at public events and creating projects to engage youth in poetry and civic life.

This position is sponsored by the City of Edmonton Youth Council, City of Edmonton and the Edmonton Poetry Festival. Edmonton has a proud tradition of poets laureate within Canada and continues to be a leader in ensuring that the work of youth poets is celebrated.

Applications will be accepted until May 31, 2016 at 8 p.m. To apply, visit ceyc.ca/youthpoet.
