

The rainbow crosswalks are back!

May 24, 2016

The City of Edmonton is repainting the temporary rainbow-coloured crosswalks in time for this year's Pride Parade.

Repainting will begin on Tuesday, May 24 at 10 p.m., if weather is favourable, at three locations:

- east-west crossings at 108 Street and 82 Avenue
- east-west crossings at 106 Street and 82 Avenue
- north-south crossings at 84 Avenue and 104 Street

Following the success of last year's pilot and the overwhelmingly positive response from the public, the repainting is part of the City's long-term effort to install permanent rainbow crosswalks.

City Operations is currently exploring guidelines for other decorative crosswalks that will showcase diverse communities, history and culture in Edmonton. Following the development of these guidelines, stakeholders will be consulted to determine locations for permanent rainbow crosswalks in 2017.
