

Kicking off the start of Downtown's newest park

June 9, 2016

Media and the public are invited to join Mayor Don Iveson at the groundbreaking ceremony for Downtown Edmonton's newest green space, Alex Decoteau Park. The park is named after Canada's first aboriginal police officer, who joined EPS in 1909. Community members and descendants of Alex Decoteau will also be joining the Mayor in this celebration and speaking at the event.

Date: Friday, June 10, 2016

Time: 1 p.m.

Location: 10204 105 Street

There will be a photo opportunity after the formal ceremony, and time for one-on-one interviews.
