

City unveils new student designed bike racks

June 15, 2016

Media are invited to join in as Jasper Place High School students celebrate the Jasper Place Bike Racks Pilot Project with a ceremonial bike locking at Butler Memorial Park.

Date: Wednesday, June 15, 2016

Time: 2:30 p.m.

Location: Stony Plain Road and 157 Street (in front of the Butler Memorial Park)

The Jasper Place Bike Racks Pilot Project supports the City of Edmonton's Jasper Place Revitalization Strategy. It is a collaboration between students at Jasper Place High School, the Stony Plain Road and Area Business Revitalization Zone, Urban Transportation and CITYlab at the City of Edmonton.
