

City celebrates National Aboriginal Day

June 16, 2016

Celebrate and learn about Edmonton's First Nations, Métis and Inuit history at one of the many events leading up to National Aboriginal Day on June 21, 2016!

A number of community events will be taking place around the city to honour Indigenous peoples' contributions to Canada, including an event in Borden Park from 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. featuring musical and cultural acts. All events are free and open to the public! Visit our website for a complete event schedule.

The City will also partner in hosting the National Aboriginal Day Film Festival as part of the Amiskwaciy History Series. The festival runs from Saturday, June 18 until Tuesday, June 21. Each day will showcase one to three films beginning with pre-contact to reconciliation. The event is free and open to the public. A full list of film titles and synopses is available online.
