

Edmontonians affected by suicide gather at Ezio Faraone Park

July 25, 2016

Suicide is a leading cause of death in Edmonton and it affects many people in our community. As a preventative and meaningful action, safety barriers have been installed along the High Level Bridge.

Date: Monday, July 25, 2016

Time: 2 p.m.

Location: Constable Ezio Faraone Park, 110 Street and 97 Avenue (map)

Kris Andreychuk, Supervisor of Community Safety at the City of Edmonton and Ione Challborn, Executive Director of the Canadian Mental Health Association, will be available for interviews. Dan Klemke and other Edmontonians affected by suicide will also be in attendance.
