

Help shape Edmonton's future

September 28, 2016

Attend one of the public information sessions to find out more about Edmonton's proposed City Charter and provide your input.

City Charters for Edmonton and Calgary aim to help Alberta's two largest cities plan smarter communities and work more efficiently on issues from tax assessments to affordable housing to traffic safety. A City Charter shifts authority from the province to the City of Edmonton over areas that directly impact the lives of residents. It gives the City the flexibility and ability to respond to local needs with local solutions.

Date: Monday, October 3, 2016 or Tuesday, October 4, 2016

Time: 5:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Location: Lister Centre, Maple Leaf Room (University of Alberta Main Campus),
87 Avenue and 116 Street

You can also fill out a brief online survey and tell the City what the City Charter means to you. For further details and to learn more about Edmonton's proposed City Charter go to edmonton.ca/citycharter.
