

Help reduce food waste!

October 5, 2016

Did you know 74 per cent of residents think food waste is an issue in Edmonton?

The City of Edmonton is conducting research to learn more about resident's thoughts and household habits related to food waste. This information will be used to develop programs to reduce household food waste in Edmonton.

The Edmonton Insight survey is open until Tuesday, October 11. Please participate in our online Food Waste Survey today to help our future efforts in reducing household food waste!
