

Join the buzz at Honey Harvest!

October 11, 2016

Edmontonians are invited to take part in Honey Harvest, a unique networking opportunity with Edmonton's urban beekeeping community. The event includes panel and roundtable discussions on the challenges of urban beekeeping in a cold climate.

Date: Friday, October 14, 2016
Time: 6:30 - 10 p.m.
Location: John Janzen Nature Centre, 7000 - 143 Street (shared parking with Fort Edmonton Park)
Cost: $40 per adult
Course Code: 571161

Enjoy the bee themed offerings from select vendors and local mead or honey beer from Sherbrooke Liquor while connecting with other urban beekeepers. It's an evening everyone will be buzzing about!

This is an 18+ event, registration is required and photo identification must be presented before entry. Liquor tickets sold separately. To register, please visit edmonton.ca/ereg or call 311. The course code is required when registering.
