The Amiskwacyi History Series proudly presents former UN delegate Ron Lameman. Learn more about the history of Treaty No. 6 and understand the Indigenous culture in the Edmonton area.

Date: Thursday, October 27, 2016
Time: 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.
Location: Stanley Milner Library Theatre
7 Sir Winston Churchill Square
Cost: Free

Ronald J. Lameman of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation, Treaty No. 6 Territory, is the Director of Justice and Legal Affairs of the Beaver Lake Cree Nation and also serves as the Treaty Coordinator with Confederacy of Treaty 6 First Nations. He has been a lifetime proponent of the Treaty focusing on upholding and enforcing the Rights of the Indigenous Nations of Treaty No. 6 in Alberta and Saskatchewan. He was a delegate to the second UN Conference on Indigenous Peoples in 1981 at UN European Headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland and attended the founding session of the UN Working Group on Indigenous Populations in Geneva in 1982.

The Amiskwacyi History Series is a new Indigenous initiative created to build awareness around the often untold Indigenous history of the Edmonton area. Through free monthly educational sessions, the Amiskwacyi History Series aims to provide accessible and culturally appropriate education to the public on Indigenous history as lived and told by the people.

The name Amiskwacyi comes from Amiskwacyi Waskahikan or "Beaver Hill House," a Cree term used to describe the Edmonton area.
