

The Holiday Express is arriving at the Muttart Conservatory

November 16, 2016

The Muttart Conservatory invites guests to take a ride on the Holiday Express in their new feature pyramid display, November 19 through January 8. There are no stops between the conservatory and the heart of the season when you visit a pyramid filled with poinsettias, miniature trains and holiday memories.

It's the Muttart Conservatory's 40th anniversary year and guests will be returning with their families for traditional events they may have enjoyed as children.

Trains, Toys & Christmas Traditions

Date: Sunday, December, 11, 2016

Time: Noon - 4 p.m.

Concert at the Conservatory: Holiday Favourites

Date: Thursday, Dec. 15 and Friday, Dec. 22, 2016

Time: 6:30 - 8 p.m.

Countdown at the Conservatory

Date: Saturday Dec. 31, 2016

Time: 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Trains, Toys & Christmas Traditions is a holiday party for all ages, and the Holiday Favourites concerts let guests sing along with some of Edmonton's most talented vocalists. As always, Countdown at the Conservatory will provide a New Year's celebration for families with young children and anyone who prefers to ring in the New Year early and often.

The Muttart Conservatory's popular poinsettias will be available in the gift shop again this year, starting November 18, 2016.

These celebrations are included with regular admission and the Muttart Conservatory will be open every day except Christmas during the holiday season.
