

Let's Talk Heritage

November 21, 2016

The latest in the Great Ideas. Great City. Speaker Series, Let's Talk Heritage: Connecting Narratives Through Placemaking, will examine the many layers and complexities of representing and celebrating Edmonton's heritage and history while planning and building for the future.

Date: Wednesday, November 30, 2016
Time: Doors open at 6 p.m.
Location: City Hall, 1 Sir Winston Churchill Square
Tickets: Free at Eventbrite

The session will highlight the River Crossing Heritage Interpretive Plan and how it uses architecture, landscaping, public art, programming and pathways to tell the area's heritage story. Let's Talk Heritage will feature a round table discussion with local panelists and guest panelist Jay Pitter, author, placemaker, senior stakeholder engagement professional and editor of Subdivided: City-Building in an Age of Hyper-Diversity.

Let's Talk Heritage is a collaboration with the City-Region Studies Centre's longstanding Regional Planning Speaker Series and the Edmonton Heritage Council.
