

City honours Edmontonians' achievements

November 21, 2016

The City of Edmonton's Salute to Excellence Council are proud to announce the 2016 Performance & Citation Award recipients.

"The Salute to Excellence awards recognize Edmontonians who help shape our city through their leadership, vision and contributions to our community life," said Mayor Don Iveson. "Whether it is in the areas of arts and culture, sport or community service—these outstanding individuals and groups solve problems, fill needs and share their talents to make our city a better place."

The Citation Awards recognize individuals who have given more than five years of distinguished service as artists, volunteers, or inspirational leaders in arts and culture, community service, or sports. The Performance Awards honour those who have gained outstanding recognition at the national or international level in sports or arts and culture. There will be more than 200 Performance Awards presented to athletes from various sports and backgrounds for their accomplishments in the past year.

Salute to Excellence is celebrating 65 years of honouring outstanding individuals and groups whose work in arts, culture, community service and sports has improved the quality of life in Edmonton.
