Firefighters brave icy waters of North Saskatchewan

March 2, 2017

Media are invited to watch as firefighters enter into the North Saskatchewan River and practice various forms of rescue as part of their annual swift water ice training.

Date: Friday, March 3, 2017

Time: Noon

Location: Rundle Park, 2909 113 Avenue

Follow the road down past the ACT centre to the end of the road, there will be a parking lot beside a small shack (Rundle Park Disc Golf Course Shack). Best vantage point is from the second foot bridge.

These exercises will showcase the specialized training and equipment used in ice rescue operations. Lead Trainer Scott Brochu will be available for interview.
