View films that aim to help eliminate racism

March 20, 2017

Edmontonians are invited to see the results of the 48-hour Anti-Racism film challenge at the Red Carpet Screening of the 2017 Anti-Racism Festival.

Date: Tuesday, March 21, 2017

Time: 6 p.m.

Location: Princess Theatre, 10337-82 Ave

This event is free of charge and individuals can RSVP through eventbrite. The screening coincides with the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination.

The 2017 Anti-Racism festival is organized by the Canadian Cultural Mosaic Foundation, in partnership with Edmonton Digital Arts College, Centre for Race and Culture and Breath in Poetry Collective. The festival is sponsored by the City of Edmonton.
