Parking ban remains in effect during playoffs

April 20, 2017

The City of Edmonton is reminding anyone going to watch an Oilers game on Whyte Avenue or Jasper Avenue to follow a parking ban in effect during the playoffs.

In addition to existing parking restrictions, no stopping or parking is permitted from 6 p.m. until midnight during all home and away games:

- Whyte Avenue between Gateway Boulevard and 109 Street
- Jasper Avenue between 100 Street and 109 Street

Anyone who fails to comply with the parking ban risks having their vehicle ticketed and towed. Bylaw officers will be patrolling both areas on all game nights.

Keeping Whyte Avenue and Jasper Avenue clear of vehicles will create additional space on these streets and will ensure a smooth flow of traffic and pedestrians. Bars on Whyte Avenue and Jasper Avenue are expected to draw large numbers of hockey fans gathering to watch the Oilers play.

The parking ban went into effect at 7 p.m. on previous game days, but will start at 6 p.m. beginning on April 20.

The City encourages Edmontonians to take ETS or to use either the on-street paid parking zones or one of the many paid parking lots available if heading out to watch an Oilers game.
