Ben Calf Robe Pow Wow celebrates 36 years

May 5, 2017

Edmontonians are invited to celebrate a day filled with dancing, drumming and singing at the 36th annual Ben Calf Robe Traditional Pow Wow.

Date: Saturday, May 13, 2017

Time: 1 - 10 p.m. Grand entries at 1 p.m. and 6 p.m.

Location: Commonwealth Community Recreation Centre (Indoor Fieldhouse), 1100 Stadium Road

Cost: Free

Chief Ben Calf Robe was a Blackfoot elder and residential school survivor. As a strong supporter of the advancement of Indigenous people, he spent his life supporting their rights and access to education. The Ben Calf Robe Traditional Pow Wow is an opportunity for all Edmontonians to experience, understand and embrace the Indigenous culture.

Attendees are encouraged to bring a chair to enjoy the celebration. Craft and food vendors will be on site. Parking is limited for this event, please consider using public transit. The Ben Calf Robe Pow Wow is presented in partnership with Edmonton Catholic Schools, Aboriginal Learning Services and the City of Edmonton.
